HIM-1401: SYSTEMS IN HEALTHCARE DELIVERY

Cuyahoga Community College

Viewing: HIM-1401 : Systems in Healthcare Delivery
Board of Trustees:
March 2021

Academic Term:
Fall 2021

Subject Code
HIM - Health Information Management

Course Number:
1401

Title:
Systems in Healthcare Delivery

Catalog Description:
A study of health information management (HIM) in various health care settings. Includes an overview of the setting, documentation requirements, regulatory issues, reimbursement, information management, quality assessment, utilization, and risk management/legal issues, role of the HIM professional and trends.

Credit Hour(s):
2

Lecture Hour(s):
2

Requisites

Prerequisite and Corequisite
Departmental approval.

Outcomes

Course Outcome(s):
Describe general characteristics of the following practice areas, including past, present, and future utilization, if applicable: Hospital-Based Care, Freestanding Ambulatory Care, Managed Care, Dialysis, Correctional Facilities, Mental Health, Substance Abuse, Facilities for Individuals with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities, Long-Term Care, Rehabilitation, Home Health Care, Hospice, Dental Care Settings, Veterinary Settings, Consulting, and Cancer Registry.

Essential Learning Outcome Mapping:
Not Applicable: No Essential Learning Outcomes mapped. This course does not require application-level assignments that demonstrate mastery in any of the Essential Learning Outcomes.

Objective(s):
1. List regulatory issues, including licensure and accreditation standards.
2. Identify documentation issues.
3. Describe reimbursement, payment, and other revenue issues.
4. Describe issues in information management, including coding and classification, data and information flow, electronic information systems, and data sets.
5. Describe quality assessment and utilization management activities.
6. Explain risk management and legal issues.
7. Identify the role of the health information management (HIM) professional.
8. Describe trends affecting the practice area.
9. Describe any other unique features of the practice area.

Methods of Evaluation:
1. Class participation
2. Homework assignments
3. Midterm and/or Final examination
4. Quizzes

Course Content Outline:
1. The change of healthcare delivery in the United States.
    a. Important changes affecting health care delivery and reimbursement
    b. United States hospitals and twentieth-century healthcare
    c. Payment issues affecting healthcare delivery
    d. Technological and other issues affecting the delivery of healthcare
    e. Impact on the role of the health information manager
    f. Expanding opportunities available to health information managers
2. With regard to the following practice areas:
    a. Hospital-based care
    b. Freestanding ambulatory care
    c. Managed care
    d. Dialysis
    e. Correctional facilities
    f. Mental health
    g. Substance abuse
    h. Facilities for individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities
    i. Long-term care
    j. Rehabilitation
    k. Home health care
    l. Hospice
    m. Dental care settings
    n. Veterinary settings
    o. Consulting
    p. Cancer registry
        i. Types of care provided
        ii. Types of healthcare providers
        iii. Types of patients
        iv. Documentation requirements and issues
        v. Regulatory and accreditation standard
        vi. Reimbursement and payment methods
        vii. Coding and classification systems viii. Data sets
        ix. Legal/risk management
        x. Utilization management
        xi. HIPAA
        xii. Pertinent record completion, filing, computer systems xiii. Common terms

Resources

A.H. Peden. (2017) Comparative Health Information Management , Clifton, NY: Cengage Learning.

A. Sayles, Nanette and Gordon, Leslie. Health Information technology, An Applied Approach. 6th. Chicago: AHIMA, 2020.

Resources Other
1. Journal of the Health Information Management Association (JAHIMA). A monthly journal published by AHIMA, Chicago, IL.
2. ADVANCE for Health Information Professionals. A bi-monthly magazine published by Merion Publications, Inc., PA.
3. For The Record. A bi-monthly magazine published by 2004 Great Valley Publishing Company, Inc., PA.

4. Other professional journals, newsletters, and readings as assigned which are relevant to current practices.
5. Internet research assignments

Top of page
Key: 2146